The Aesthetic Academy 2018

CME Information

Target Audience
The educational design of this activity addresses the needs of physicians and ancillary health care professionals such as nurses, physician assistants, nurse practitioners and other medical professionals or office staff practicing aesthetic medicine involved in the care of aesthetic patients.

Statement of Need / Program Overview
Based on surveys of past meeting attendees, former meeting faculty members and our Scientific Advisory Board, we have found there is a continued lack of sufficient medical education and training (including hands-on procedural training) for physicians and professional medical staff who are currently practicing or are interested in practicing aesthetic medicine.

The Aesthetic Academy brings the latest aesthetic knowledge, including plastic surgery and dermatologic procedures, products and technologies together in an intensive and interactive educational format. This meeting program is designed to provide an educational format to counteract where there is a deficiency of live and hands-on demonstration training programs where physicians can acquire the knowledge necessary for effective, safe and high levels of patient care.

Educational Objectives
After completing this activity, the participant should be better able to:

• Describe the aesthetic evaluation process, especially as it relates to assessing and restoring volume to the face and needs for facial rejuvenation.
• Compare botulinum toxin treatment and dermal filler treatment outcomes, safety, risks, complications, costs and benefits, among other factors that may be applicable to your practice.
• Choose an appropriate neurotoxin or dermal filler based on the area of desired correction.
• Select appropriate augmentation therapies based on patient characteristics, needs and goals.
• Demonstrate the advanced injection techniques required to obtain optimal results in the aging face.
• Distinguish how appropriate injection techniques and proper patient selection can minimize complications.
• Identify the latest and most current aesthetic techniques, trends and procedures.
• Understand where the aesthetic industry stands and where it is headed.
• Understand and apply new practice management ideas and services to their practice.
• Describe the latest uses of cosmeceuticals in an aesthetic medical practice.
• Explain how to clinically assess a patient, council a patient, and suggest a treatment to a patient.
• Review with existing guidelines for the treatment of atopic dermatitis, acne, pigmentation, scars, and others skin conditions.

Physician Accreditation Statement
This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of Global Education Group (Global) and United Business Media. Global is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Physician Credit Designation
Global Education Group designates this live activity for the maximum of 13.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Nursing Continuing Education
Global Education Group is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's COA. This educational activity for 13.0 contact hours is provided by Global Education Group. Nurses should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Disclosure of Conflicts of Interest
Global Education Group (Global) requires instructors, planners, managers and other individuals and their spouse/life partner who are in a position to control the content of this activity to disclose any real or apparent conflict of interest they may have as related to the content of this activity. All identified conflicts of interest are thoroughly vetted by Global for fair balance, scientific objectivity of studies mentioned in the materials or used as the basis for content and appropriateness of patient care recommendations.

Americans with Disabilities Act
Event staff will be glad to assist you with any special needs (i.e., physical, dietary, etc.). Please contact The Aesthetic Academy prior to the live event at (949) 830-5409.

Over four days, this unique event brings current procedures, new products, innovative technologies and top physicians together into one venue.

The Aesthetic Guide
The Aesthetic Guide features the latest developments in aesthetic medicine, product offerings, clinical discussions, and practice growth strategies. With dedicated editions for the U.S., European and Asian markets, it is the industry's most influential global print and digital journal.

The Certified Aesthetic Consultant
The Certified Aesthetic Consultant program is the industry's only systematic, comprehensive approach to teaching core competencies essential to practice success. A Certified Aesthetic Consultant (CAC) has mastered the art, science and business of medical aesthetic practice management and patient consultation.
